

1ST PHYSIOLOGIC PACING IN KRAKOW WORKSHOP JUNE 2, 2023

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to invite you to the 1st Physiologic Pacing in Krakow Workshop organized by the Electrophysiology Laboratory of University Hospital in Krakow. This event will take place on 2nd June 2023, during POLSTIM - the XXIII annual conference of the SRS — Heart Rhythm Section of the Polish Cardiac Society.

Two live-cases and pre-recorded cases transmitted from our EP lab and world-class faculty give chance to showcase the physiologic approach to cardiac pacing. His bundle and left bundle branch pacing techniques and the hybrid approach for resynchronization in heart failure (LOT-CRT) will be demonstrated.

We look forward to seeing you in Krakow!

Program directors:

Prof. Marek Jastrzębski, MD, PhD

Dr. Paweł Moskal, MD, PhD
